The Overland China Mail.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL FOR THE HOME MAIL.

IT PUBLISHED to suit the Departure of each ENGLISH and FOREIGN MAIL Steamer for Europe. Formerly the Overland issue was published fortnightly; but as it was deemed of special importance that a weekly budget of news should be prepared, it was decided to issue it weekly. Subscribers at Home, and those at the Coast Ports and in the interior, who find the Overland edition a convenient form of newspaper for their personal use, will welcome the change. The Overland China Mail, now a weekly compendium of news from the Far East, contains special Commercial Intelligence, special tables of Shipping, and other information. The various Reports of Courts and Meetings, and all other news, are given in full as they appear in the Daily issue.

The attention of Advertisers is directed to a weekly newspaper, which is circulated among old China "lands" and others, both at home and in the Far East, who do not take the daily journals.

The Overland China Mail will be regularly posted from the China Mail Office to subscribers, on their addresses being forwarded to us.

...tice of a general consensus of opinion

SHE was at a dance and musicals tonight evening, dressed handsomely in white, and he wore black tids, however.
'Why did you not wear white gloves?'
asked a friend. 'O, my cousin did Cherynone last night and I had to show some respect to her memory,' and she continued the giddy waltz with her partner—Dancer Nearer.

When a wife gets to reacting one of the old men has husband used to keep before her was married, and finds an entry the says: "Prayer meeting out at 10 o'clock home at 11.45, she can't help wondering just where the young man was, and where he was doing for that mysterious hour and forty-five minutes so many years ago." Journal of Education.

"How in your pere getting along?" asked the other day, from Old Grizzle, who in the other part, when she was waiting for his mother to make her appearance in the parlor. "Oh, buly! He's going to build a house." "Going to build a house? How do you know that?" "Well, I heard Hammond say he built him a his last week night." — Yonkers Statesman.

AN IMPORTANT DISCOVERY is announced in the 'Paris Figaro,' of a valuable remedy for nervous debility; physical exhaustion and premature decay. The discovery was made by a missionary in Old Mexico; saved him from a miserable existence as an early invalid. We learn that the Rev.
Joseph Holmes, Bloomsbury Mansions, Bloomsbury Square, London, W. C., will send the prescription, free of charge, on receipt of a self-addressed stamped envelope.

In the sufferers from Consumption, Scrufuls and General Debility will try Scott's Emulsion. Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, they will find immediate relief and a permanent benefit. The Medical Profession in the various countries of the world universally declare it a remedy of the greatest value, and as it is very palatable can be readily taken by the most sensitive constitutions. It will give strength and comfort to the sufferer. Any Chemist can supply it.—Watson & Co. (Limited), agents in Hongkong and China.—adv.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY, TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese, caused by the discontinuance of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, has reached its fourteenth volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the Far East, and about which every intelligent person conversant with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive Notes of Travel by extending writers. It is thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to the Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office.

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondent column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated.

Regular contributors are Dr. Chalmers, Elliot, Bruchmann, and Hirth, Chalmers, Legge, and Messrs. Balfour, Waters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groat, Jamieson, Fisher, Koppel, Parker, Gray, Giles, Piton, and Taylor, all well known names, indicative of a high standard of scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $5.00 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, "Manager, China Mail Office."
